Updated March 2009
Reflect on the instructional units (Key Element 1.C): How did you determine your instructional sequence and the amount of time to be spent on each unit of instruction?

Section IV: Assessment of Student Performance (Key Element 1.D)

Reflect on student performance (Key Element 1.D): (1) How did you determine that your major assessments are appropriate for evaluating student progress and achievement, and (2) What did or will you do to help your students and their parents understand (a) the evaluation criteria you have established for the course as well as (b) the reports they receive regarding the student’s overall progress and achievement in the course?

Section V: Classroom Management (Key Element I.E)

Describe your expectations for student behavior during instruction and during noninstructional routines. Write your description as though you were explaining these expectations to your students and their parents.

The explanation for student classroom behavior during instruction and during noninstructional routines is described in a separate document. (Note: A copy of this document must be included in the dossier.)

The explanation for student classroom behavior during instruction and during noninstructional routines is described below.

- Reflect on classroom management (Key Element 1.E): What are the most important considerations in managing the classroom to maximize instructional time, and why do you believe them to be important?

Section VI: Additional Teacher Comments (optional)
