An Evening with Ben Franklin

Johns Hall 101
Monday, March 16
6:00-7:00 pm

Dr. Christopher Lowell is the best-known Ben Franklin re-enactor. He will assume the identity of Ben Franklin to talk about Franklin’s accomplished and multifaceted career, particularly his involvement with the antislavery cause. He will both address the audience and answer questions afterwards in character.

Funding provided by the First-Year Seminar Committee and the History Department