Furman / USC-Greenville School of Medicine
Early Acceptance Program Application Checklist

Use the following checklist to ensure that you have prepared all of the appropriate application materials for submission to the Early Acceptance Program (EAP). Be sure to adhere to the deadlines for each step of the application process.

Application to the Furman EAP Committee: The deadline for submission of materials to the Office of Health Careers Advising is October 1, 2015.

______  EAP Application. (Available on the Office of Health Careers Advising website.)

______  Two (2) Letters of Recommendation, including at least one from a science professor.
          (Forms available on the Office of Health Careers Advising website.)

______  Personal Statement Essay.  (Instructions for this essay are within the EAP application.)

Application to the USC-Greenville EAP Committee: The following materials will be required if you are selected by the Furman EAP Committee to be interviewed by the USC-Greenville School of Medicine. The appropriate forms and applications will be sent to you if you are selected, and the deadline for submission of all materials to the USC-Greenville School of Medicine is March 1, 2016.

______  One (1) additional Letter of Recommendation.
          (Instructions for this letter will be provided if you are selected for an interview.)

______  Supplemental Application for the USC-Greenville School of Medicine.
          (This application will be provided if you are selected for an interview.)

______  Official Furman University Transcript including grades from the Fall 2015 Semester.
          (Instructions for submission will be provided if you are selected for an interview.)