

Information For Parents Summer Learning Place 2009 Furman University

WHAT IT IS:

- a four week (16 days, Monday through Thursday) comprehensive, small group instructional program for children/youth aged 6 - 14 with learning difficulties
- curriculum includes academics, social skills, and physical activities
- taught by graduate level teachers certifying in special education

WHEN IT IS:

- July 6 - July 30, 8:30 until 11:30 a.m. (Monday through Thursday)

WHERE IT IS:

- Location near the Furman University campus

COST:

- The charge to each student who attends is $200.00 (payable to Furman University; $50 due with application form and the remainder due by June 20)

WHAT CAN YOU EXPECT:

- evaluation of your child's specific learning abilities in academics, learning styles, and persona/social behaviors at the beginning of the program
- assessment of progress made during the program and a final report which may be shared with your child's school
- creative teaching and learning opportunities for your child
- ongoing communication with your child's Summer Learning Place teacher

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO:

- Submit the completed Information Form, Medical Information Form and get the signed release form with a $50 deposit by May 22, and send to:

Dr. Shirley A. Ritter, Director
Summer Learning Place
Education Department
Furman University
Greenville, SC 29613-1134

Full payment due June 20, 2008