Free Audit Program for Senior Citizens

As a service to Greenville area senior citizens, Furman will permit anyone 65 and over, or 60 and retired, to audit day or evening credit classes on a space-available basis at no charge. The program gives senior citizens the opportunity to enjoy the stimulation of a serious academic environment without the cost of taking courses for credit.

If you qualify and are interested, complete the brief application form below and discuss your interests with a Continuing Education counselor. Because free audits are only permitted on a space-available basis, requests cannot be confirmed until after regular student registration is completed each term.
