The course in upper-level humanities cannot be in the same department as the student's major. Students who are double majors with at least one of their majors in a humanities department (Asian Studies, Classics, Communication Studies, English, History, Modern Languages and Literatures, Philosophy, or Religion) do not need to complete the general education requirement in upper-level humanities.
ONE COURSE IN FITNESS AND WELLNESS	HES-10
ONE TO THREE COURSES IN FOREIGN LANGUAGES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 11, 12, AND 21, • 15 AND 21, • 21, OR • ANY ONE COURSE NUMBERED GREATER THAN 21.
All students are required to demonstrate proficiency in a foreign language through the first intermediate course (courses numbered 21) or must complete at least one course in a foreign language numbered greater than 21. Foreign language instruction is offered in both ancient: Greek (GRK) and Latin (LAT) and modern: Chinese (CHN), French (FR), German (GER), Japanese (JPN), and Spanish (SPN) languages. The course sequence the student will follow is determined by placement when entering Furman. The final course enrolled to satisfy the general education requirement in foreign language must be completed at Furman. Foreign languages not taught at Furman may be enrolled at another accredited institution to fulfill the general education requirement with permission of the appropriate department chair.
ONE TO THREE COURSES IN MATHEMATICS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • MTH-10 AND 11S, • MTH-11, • MTH-15, • MTH-16, OR • MTH-31, 32 AND 33
Students pursuing the Bachelor of Science degree must meet this requirement by completing MTH-11 or MTH-11S. Candidates for the Bachelor of Music degree do not need to meet the general education requirement in mathematics. MTH-31, 32, 33 sequence is generally available to education majors only.
TWO COURSES IN THE NATURAL SCIENCES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • BIO-11 OR 16, • CHM-11, 12, OR (16 OR 18), • EES-11, 16, 18, 21, • PHY-11, 12, 14, 15, 17, OR • SCI-16 AND 17.
