Welcome to the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute @ Furman!

Spring is here. Well, almost here anyway, and we are glad you are a part of OLLI. There are so many exciting and fun opportunities this term that I am glad I don’t have to make the choice of which classes to take! I know you will enjoy your OLLI experience no matter which courses you take or bonus trips you experience. OLLI is so much more than just coming to class. It is meeting people your age that share your passions and interests. It’s not only getting on a schedule and learning but also laughing with new friends during lunch in the Furman Dining Hall or having a great conversation after class.

Furman is your alma mater now. You will probably spend more time coming out to enjoy OLLI and all the doors it will open up for you than the college you attended in your youth. Enjoy all this beautiful campus has to offer from the path around the lake to concerts given by faculty and staff. Attend a baseball game or a rugby match, or spend some time in the library. Furman has made such a commitment to our community that you might as well take advantage.

OLLI @ Furman will be a great place for you if you participate. We want more from you than to see your face in class once a week. Stop by the book nook, enjoy a brown bag lunch, take a Friday trip, go to the Greenville Drive game. Learn about our committees, review the new building plans, ask questions—get involved. I promise, you will enjoy the ride.

Welcome to OLLI at Furman. We are so glad you are here.

Membership Fees
To participate in any OLLI course, trip, or event you must first join OLLI @ Furman for the academic year. The cost of $35 pays to cover copy, computer lab, lifeguard, bonus trips, seminars, software, and other incidental fees incurred by the program during the year. Once you have joined, you then have a choice of purchasing individual courses or a package of courses at a much lower per course cost.

- Individual courses: $50
- 6 courses annually: $210

How to Register—Registration Begins February 22
1. ONLINE: Go to www.furman.edu/olli and click on the Registration button or go to www.campusce.net/olliatfurman. If you have been a member of OLLI in the past three years, your user name is first name.last name. Type in your user name and click on “forgot password” to create a new one and access your account.
2. IN PERSON: Go to the OLLI Office on the Furman campus, 3300 Poinsett Highway, Greenville. OLLI Office is located behind McAlister Auditorium on campus.
3. BY MAIL: Send your completed registration with payment (check or credit card) to OLLI @ Furman, 3300 Poinsett Highway, Greenville, SC 29613-1511.
4. BY FAX: Fax your completed registration with credit card payment to 864.294.2920.

Refund Policy
Term fees are refundable through the end of the second week of classes. After the end of the second week, there will be no refunds given. An administration charge of $10 will apply to any course cancellations. If an entire membership and/or all classes are cancelled there will be a $25 administration charge.

Bonus Trip Cancellation Policy
Any cancellations within 24 hours of an event or no shows by members for the special one-day events will be charged $25 by OLLI. The member will not be able to sign up for future events or trips until this fee is paid. In case of emergency or sickness within 24 hours of the event, we ask that the member call to notify the office or trip leader as soon as possible. The notification procedure allows time for another member on the wait list to be contacted to take your place. Please be fair and considerate to your fellow members.

Annual Membership Benefits
- OLLI members can buy lunch in the Furman faculty dining room, located in the lower level of the student dining hall. We ask that you eat at one of the tables in the alcoves overlooking the lake in the student dining area. Full menus cost around $5.
- Members have access to the Furman University Duke Library during term and OLLI Book Nook (located in the OLLI Office building) year round.
- Opportunities to take special trips and attend events coordinated by the Events and Excursions Committee to theatres, museums, and a variety of other activities.
- Brown Bag Lunch speakers and special prices for campus events.
- OLLI members receive weekly OLLI Notes and the quarterly newsletter, “Gray Matters,” which keeps you updated on all OLLI and campus events.
- Use of computer lab when not in use by a class.
- Early notice of course brochures.

Hike nearby 5–8 miles, moderate to moderately strenuous trails with guidance from Bill Bozeman. Bring water, lunch, and hiking gear. Please clear this physical activity with your doctor and sign the consent and release agreement on the registration form. Meet in parking lot to the right of the chapel at 9 a.m. Carpool; share the cost of gas.

Monday, 9 a.m.—4:30 p.m.,
Daniel Chapel, parking lot to right
Bob Howell and Norm Brooks both enjoy the outdoors and hiking and will lead this course.

HFES01 Farmer’s Intermediate Hiking

Spring, the time of the year when flora and fauna wake up from their winter dormancy, is a wonderful time to go hiking. Wildflowers begin to bloom, and new growth will be evident on most plants. We will typically hike 5–8 miles on moderate to moderately strenuous trails. Wear hiking boots or sturdy shoes, and dress in layers appropriate for the weather. Bring plenty of water and lunch. Please clear this physical activity with your doctor, and sign the consent and release agreement on the registration form. Meet in the center of the lower parking lot between the chapel and football stadium at 9 a.m. Carpool; share cost of gas.

Monday, 9 a.m.—4:30 p.m.,
Daniel Chapel, parking lot
Experienced hikers Bill Farmer and Wayne Halli will co-lead this course.

PAH862 Play Ball: All for the Love of Baseball

This is for fans who love baseball and for newbies who want to learn more about America’s favorite pastime. We’ll hear from coaches and umpires about the skills and rules of the game, explore some baseball history, delve into the world of statistics, and meet Greenville Drive players and team management as we take a private tour of Fluor Field.

Monday, 9–10:30 a.m.,
Johns Hall, 101
Class begins March 28.
Margaret Clark will facilitate this course.
She is a dedicated fan who attends most Drive games, likes to keep score, and loves the lore and landscape of baseball. She will be attending Spring Training, so there’s no class on March 21. Expect a full report!

PAH868 Birding and Butterflying

This is a beginners/intermediate field class with an emphasis on discovering and appreciating Furman campus birds and butterflies. Walking shoes, the ability to walk for 90 minutes, and binoculars are required. Class will be outdoors except in the event of rain. We expect to see and identify many of the upstate’s winter visiting birds, permanent residents, as well as spring migrants and spring butterflies.

Monday, 9 a.m.—10:30 a.m.,
OLLI Office, 109
Doug Allen has been birding and doing nature photography for many decades. He is learning about butterflies and upstate South Carolina fauna and flora.

BEF201 Investing in Today’s World

In the past several years, the financial markets have been tumultuous to say the least! Many people are concerned about how our markets have gotten to where they are; what is the general health of our economy; and what we should be doing with our investments to navigate safely. This course will delve into the ever-changing economy, financial markets, and investments.

Monday, 9–10:30 a.m.,
OLLI Office, 110
Brian Disher, CFP, is vice president/portfolio manager for Greenwood Capital Associates. He is a registered investment advisor specializing in management of equity, fixed income, and balanced portfolios.

LNT759 Everyday Conversational French

Conversational French provides a unique opportunity to enjoy trying to speak everyday French, make plenty of mistakes, and laugh them off. Our mission is to challenge our perceived abilities and, who knows, find ourselves speaking with a confidence we never imagined. Note: Conversational French is designed for bumbling hopefuls. It is not for the advanced speaker, nor for the rank beginner who speaks no French at all. Recommended book: French, The Easy Way, 3rd Edition by Christopher Kendris (ISBN: 0-8120-9505-7). Text may be purchased online for $2 at www.half.com. Class will not meet on April 4.

Monday, 9–10:30 a.m.,
OLLI Office, 114
David Tillinghast is a professor of English literature at Clemson, has taught poetry and French for OLLI, and was part of the Living Words class. He has a lifelong interest in the French language inherited from his mother, who lived in Montmartre during the roaring 20s. By way of interest, his mother knew Hadley Richardson, Ernest Hemingway’s first wife, and shot pigeons and fished the Seine with E.H.
ACM115 More Satire
Satire has persisted through the centuries, not only as art and entertainment, but also as social and moral criticism. It is not well understood and makes some people uneasy; but it is worth our attention, being more effective than most means of exposing folly, self-deception, and evil. In this course we will read and consider two important satires of the eighteenth century, Swift's Gulliver's Travels and Pope's mock-epic poem The Rape of the Lock, also two late-nineteenth-century satirical plays, Shaw's Mrs. Warren's Profession and Wilde's The Importance of Being Earnest. (This course does not require having taken “Satire.”)

Monday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., North Village, Building J, 200-G

Duncan McArthur taught English for 36 years at Furman. His particular interests include British literature of the eighteenth century and satire.

BEF235 Modern Real Estate Practices
This course will review all aspects of the real estate transaction including buying and selling in the current market; the agent’s role; property disclosure requirements; the importance of square footage; how price is determined; the contract, inspection reports, and environmental issues; and so much more! Reference materials will be provided.

Monday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., North Village, Building J, 200-G

Bernie Ferrone has been in real estate for 20 years and is currently training director and broker in charge with Prudential C. Dan Joyner Co.

PAH806 Advanced Study of Tarot
Further your studies in Tarot history and reading. This advanced class will introduce you to the history of playing cards and the development of Tarot reading. You will learn about traditional Tarot reading and interpretation, and possibly develop your own new meanings and associations. Of course, you will also have fun!

Monday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., OLLI Office, 110

Scott Mason has studied the Tarot for several years. He has previously taught OLLI courses on the Tarot in both South Carolina and Oregon.

HFE550 Training for Senior Olympics
Coach Allen invites OLLI athletes and would-be athletes to train with him in race walking, sprints, and/or throwing events. We will have the opportunity to compete in area sporting events. The class will emphasize race walking, but will also train for the sprints and the throws. Brisk walking, strong hiking, or running/jogging fitness is a prerequisite. Individual training will be provided. Medical permission is required for this class.

Monday 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., Furman Track

Doug Allen has coached cross country, cross country skiing, and track and field, including race walk and discus, in high school and college. He has run 48 marathons, but is training for the race walk, sprints, throwing, and cycling events in his 70–74 age group.

HFE569 Campus Walks and Lunch
Meets behind the chapel for moderate walks around or near campus. The walk will get your heart rate up, but you will still be able to converse with fellow walkers. Most of the trails are wooded or rocky, so dress appropriately. We will have lunch (optional) in the faculty dining room or at a nearby restaurant.

Monday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., Daniel Chapel, parking lot

Elaine Brummett has taught several science classes for OLLI.

CEO401 Speed Reading
Using a computer program, you’ll learn techniques to separate the most important ideas from the less important to help you read faster and comprehend more. Whether you want to improve your comprehension or you just want to speed up, this class will guide you through several different techniques especially suited for your needs. Prerequisite: Students are required to have good working skills with the computer and mouse. No beginners please.

Monday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., OLLI Office, 116

Fred Lee worked for Mercedes-Benz and was then self-employed for 20 years. He has conducted seminars all over Europe and is now happily retired.

PAH872 Bargello Quilted Vest Sewing
Learn quilt making techniques as you make a bargello vest. We will study color selection, fabric cutting, assembly, and sewing methods for your creation. This class requires you to bring a sewing machine that you are familiar with using. A supply list will be provided to registered students. This course is for individuals who have some sewing or quilting experience.

Monday, 1–3 p.m., OLLI Office, 110

Ruth Pollow is an experienced quilter and enjoys a variety of sewing projects.
HFE511 Yoga
Yoga can act as an energy prescription to enrich your life. Spend a mini-vacation relaxing the mind and restoring the body's energy. We will combine movement with alignment to strengthen and tone muscles and release tightness. Our yoga practice is about linking the breath with the pose, and bringing the core alive while releasing resistance and layers of tension. No prior knowledge of yoga is required. Wear comfortable clothing, and bring a yoga mat.
Monday, 1:30–3 p.m., North Village, Building J, 100
Kristi Ried-Barton is a registered yoga trainer, yogic life coach, and owner of It's Yoga! Studio. She teaches classes, gives private sessions, provides teacher training, and conducts workshops. A teacher since 1979, her classes are known for their detailed instruction, inspiration, and nurturing compassion.

HFE565 Tennis Anyone?
Beginning tennis for those who want to learn the basics. This class will start with learning the fundamentals from how to hold your racket, to court rules and scoring, doubles play, and etiquette. We will start with a ten-minute warm up and stretch, drills, and end with doubles play. Bring a water bottle!
Monday, 1:30–3 p.m., North Village Pavilion, Tennis Courts
Cathleen Gallagher is an OLLI member and a former USTA member.

HIS608 Victorian England
This is the fifth installment in a complete survey of English history. The course begins with the reign of Victoria in 1837 and comes up to the early 20th century.
Monday, 1:30–3 p.m., The Woodlands, Camellia
Jeff Willis is the Andrew Helmus distinguished professor of history emeritus at Converse College where he now serves as director of Archives and Special Collections.

LNT704 Beginning Spanish III
This course will be a continuation of Beginning Spanish II, but new members are welcome to join us. We will continue to learn simple conversation with basic vocabulary and grammar that will be useful for travel and daily life. Required book: Barron’s EZ Spanish, 5th Edition (ISBN: 0-7641-4129-5). This will be a six-week course, ending the week of April 25.
Monday, 3:15–4:45 p.m., OLLI Office, 110
Furman student Marissa Pavia ‘11 is a Spanish and economics major who has studied Spanish for nine years, including four months studying abroad in Madrid.

LNT758 Beginning French
This is a basic course in French conversation, exploring listening and speaking skills. Multiple approaches will be used, including listening, speaking, writing, and reading the language. We will observe the language from a linguistic perspective, regarding the differences in pronouncing sounds and in syntax. We will also study basic French history and literature as well as modern culture in order to gain appreciation for France. Poetry, short stories, art, music, film, current events, and hopefully even culinary experiences will add to this beginner’s course on French culture.
Monday, 3:15–4:45 p.m., OLLI Office, 109
Roger Miel was born and educated as an engineer in France. He lived in Montreal for 20 years and taught workers to read aircraft drawings. After moving to Florida, he received a bachelor’s degree in business and taught mechanical design. Members of his large family live in both France and the United States.

Register online at www.campusce.net/olliatfurman
2-for-1
Take both classes (ACM120 and ACM121) and they will only count as one!

ACM120 Let’s Read and Talk
Join our book group for an open discussion of a different book each class session. Be ready to contribute your comments and thoughts by reading ahead of class meetings. March 22: All the Little Live Things by Wallace Stegner; April 5: Journal of a Solitude by May Sarton; April 19: The Bell by Iris Murdoch. Class members will select the remaining book, so bring your suggestions to the first session. This course will meet every other week beginning March 22.
Tuesday, 9–10:30 a.m., Daniel Chapel, Conference Room
OLLI member Susan Recknagel will be the class moderator.

ACM121 A Short Stop at a Big Idea
This is a recurring OLLI course which examines a different topic at each class. The topics might be selected from the fields of science, literature, music, or art. They are chosen for their appropriateness in fostering discussion. Viewing videos from a wide library is the primary in-class methodology with good discussion the goal. The class is kept small for that reason. Required book: Proust Was a Neuroscientist by Jonah Lehrer (ISBN-10: 0-618-62010-9). The course meets every other week beginning March 29.
Tuesday, 9–10:30 a.m., Daniel Chapel, Conference Room
Dave Gallemore is a Greenville native and graduate of Furman. An educator for 31 years, he has been an OLLI student for ten years.

CEO445 Great Decisions 2011
This course WILL REPEAT THE SAME TOPICS AS WINTER TERM GREAT DECISIONS 2011: Rebuilding Haiti, U.S. National Security, Horn of Africa, Responding to the Financial Crisis, Germany Ascendant, Sanctions and Nonproliferation, the Caucasus, and Global Governance. Students will use the Great Decisions discussion book and the DVD from the independent Foreign Policy Association and other current resources. Pay $22 at first class or when picking up the book at the OLLI office. Make checks payable to Furman University.
Tuesday, 9–10:30 a.m., The Woodlands, Camellia
Sherm Rounsville has led several OLLI courses, including Great Books discussions: Fossil Fuels; Guns, Germs, and Steel; and Great Decisions 2008, 2009, and 2010.

HFE525 Beginning Golf
The group lessons will cover stance, grip, woods vs. irons, putting, chipping, and driving. Clubs and balls can be provided. Wear golf or sports shoes. If the weather is bad, call the golf shop at 864.294.9090 to see if the class is rescheduled. The class runs for five consecutive weeks beginning March 22, and is held at the Furman Golf Course on Hwy 25, between Roe Ford Drive and Duncan Chapel. Meet near the driving range. Greens fee: $25 due to instructor at first class
Tuesday, 9–10:30 a.m., Furman Golf Course
Kyle Stam is Furman’s head golf instructor at the Furman Golf Course on Hwy 25, between Roe Ford Drive and Duncan Chapel. Meet near the driving range. Greens fee: $25 due to instructor at first class.

HIS605 Great Trials in History
Attorneys from one of the Southeast’s largest law firms, Womble Carlyle, Sandridge & Rice will bring to life some of the greatest and most important trials in history. Each class will present a different trial, put it in its historical context, and explore the role of the trial arena as the stage for social debate and policy development. Materials will include actual trial testimony, trial evidence, and clever arguments and trial tactics of counsel. Classes will include the Boston Massacre, Sam Sheppard, the Treason/Conspiracy Trial of Aaron Burr, the Rosenberg Trial, the Black Sox Trial (Shoeless Joe Jackson’s team accused of “throwing” the World Series) and others. Class will include time for discussion of the individual trials and their broader impact on our system of order, founded on the Rule of Law.
Tuesday, 9–10:30 a.m., North Village, Building J, 100
Keith Munson, along with other attorneys from Womble Carlyle in Greenville, will coordinate this course.

LNT775 My Destinations in My World: How to Be a Smarter, Safer, Better Traveler
This course will enable the student to consider various options for travel and will reveal destinations for the traveler to consider. We’ll cover how to get there and what to do there. We will deal in “the best bang for the buck” issues considering whether it’s an independent, hosted or guided travel event. We’ll cover destinations all over the world in some detail to include ships, boats, trains, and motor vehicles. The attendee will emerge a more knowledgeable person with greater planning ability of that next big trip to explore the world.
Tuesday, 9–10:30 a.m., OLLI Office, 110
Ralph Bates is a retired Marine and a retired deputy sheriff. He has taught military history, travel, criminology, sociology, and college level courses for over 50 years. Ralph traveled the world as a Marine and after retiring became an instructor at the Travel Agent School of Fort Myers.
RPH990 Geography and Archeology of the Biblical World
This course offers an introductory overview of ancient sites in the biblical and modern centers of Middle Eastern and Mediterranean culture, with special attention to archaeological research and discoveries. An awareness of the natural environment and physical structures of this region enhances the understanding of the Bible. Also, this course provides insight into some of the contemporary cultural conflicts with deep historical and religious roots.
Tuesday, 9–10:30 a.m., Hipp Hall, 7
James Pitts is professor of religion emeritus at Furman. He is a retired Furman Chaplin and has taught courses for OLLI since its beginning.

ACM116 The Aeneid
Virgil’s Aeneid tells the classic story of the Trojan hero Aeneas whose journeys take him from a defeated Troy to a new home in Latium, what is now Italy. This epic tale recounts Aeneas’s escape from the treachery of the Greeks who infiltrate Troy with a wooden horse and burn his city. It takes him off course to Carthage where he languishes in love with the Carthaginian queen Dido. Like The Odyssey such a journey is incomplete without a visit to the underworld, where Aeneas sees the shade of Dido, who killed herself in grief at his departure from Carthage. The story of “warfare and a man of war” ends with Aeneas’s triumph in war to conquer Latium.
Tuesday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m.,
OLLI Office, 109
Mark Stone is a professor of philosophy at Furman. In the past, he has taught courses for OLLI on Homer’s Iliad and Odyssey.

BEF200 Are We Going to be OK?
Portfolio managers and retirement counselors field hundreds of questions from their clients. Some questions involve competing investments (i.e. mutual funds vs. ETFs, etc.). Other questions involve competing strategies (i.e. traditional IRAs vs. Roth IRAs, etc.). However, behind all of these questions, what retirees really seem to be asking is “Are we going to be OK, financially speaking?” They want to know how to make their money last, how to prepare for higher inflation, and how to plan for their spouse’s welfare. In this eight-week course, we will discuss many basic portfolio management and retirement issues. This course is not for beginners. A basic knowledge of stocks, bonds, investment strategy, and sophisticated investment vehicles is useful to get the most out of this class. Materials Fee: $15 (due to instructor at first class).
Tuesday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., Hipp Hall, 7
Dant Goepper is a partner with Goepper Burkhardt McGrew, a wealth counseling firm with locations in Greenville and Atlanta. Over the past 40 years, he has taught over 500 classes on behalf of colleges and universities and non-profit organizations.

CEO408 Team Trivia
This is a fun class based on the popular board game, Trivial Pursuit. It will be played by oral participation rather than on the board. We will follow the traditional categories, and the atmosphere will be competitive. Come stretch your brain and help your team.
Tuesday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m.,
OLLI Office, 110
Nancy Moore will facilitate this course.

SNM1013 Astronomy 2011: Beyond Our Solar System
With demonstrations and hands-on experiences, we will continue to explore the foundations of astronomy, the stars, galaxies, and the universe. This class will enhance your understanding and guide you in further appreciation of the universe that surrounds us. A tentative field trip is also planned to the PARI observatory in Rosnan, North Carolina.
Tuesday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m.,
Rinker Hall, 253
Val Satko has taught astronomy for the past two years within the OLLI @ Furman program. This term he promises a challenging new look at the realm of the infinite.

SNM1040 Spring Wildflowers and Trees
Interested in learning to identify plants and trees of our area, how they have been used by Native Americans and past generations for food and medicine—and are still used today? Join certified master naturalist Marie Burgess as she teaches identifying techniques, forest ecology, and natural history. Several off-campus nature walks will be offered. Since these walks will take several hours, it will be difficult for participants to have classes before and after this scheduled class. Please sign the consent and release agreement on the registration form.
Tuesday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m.,
North Village, Building J, 100
Marie Burgess is a certified upstate master naturalist and has taught nature based courses for OLLI for many years. She is a former college professor and director.
CEO444 Elder Wisdom Circle
Now, when we need the wisdom of our elders, where is it? How wise are you? How do you share your wisdom with others? During this course we will discover our own wisdom in a new receptiveness to the ideas of others, thoughtful speaking, deep listening, and the formation of broader and more inclusive perspectives. We will learn that wisdom is not simply having the best opinion or idea regarding a matter, but is actually an ever-expanding and evolving viewpoint, that ultimately recognizes and includes all viewpoints in a spiral of growth, understanding, and thoughtful action.

Tuesday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., Daniel Chapel, Conference Room
Over the past six years, Dudley Tower, Ph.D., has taught a number of psychology, self-awareness, and positive aging OLLI classes.

ACM105 The Music of Duke Ellington
One of America’s greatest 20th century composers, Duke Ellington was a pianist who often said his “real” instrument was his orchestra. Through recordings and films we will see and hear how he developed that instrument over a full half century. We will examine his mini-concertos, tone poems, and extended works, from suites to sacred concerts, as well as his popular standard tunes that generated the income he used to keep his band constantly employed. We will also look at Ellington’s career and influence as a pianist and collaborator with a host of other important jazz vocal and instrumental giants.

Tuesday, 1–2:30 p.m., Daniel Music Building, 3
George Kanzler was a staff writer/critic (jazz and pop) for The Star Ledger (NJ) for 33 years. He contributes to Jazz Times, Hot House and All About Jazz–New York. He is an honorary lifetime member of the Duke Ellington Society, New York Chapter.

CEO448 Women and Men II: Loving the Differences
Whether you took the first course or not, you will enjoy this living, appreciative, and humorous look at the differences between men and women. We will explore the reality and myth behind male/female stereotypes and psychosocial generalizations. Humor is the entry into this area of fact vs. fiction—as gender humor usually contains some truth as well as exaggeration. We will review the latest scientific information from the fields of psychology, neuropsychology, and genetics while maintaining a spirited and open discussion of how male/female differ during the aging process.

Tuesday, 1:30–3 p.m., OLLI Office, 109
Over the past six years, Dudley Tower, Ph.D., has taught a number of psychology, self-awareness, and positive aging OLLI classes.

HFE517 Qigong and T’ai Chi for Seniors
The slow, gentle movements of Qigong and T’ai Chi are easy to learn and suitable for every age and physical condition. They can be practiced standing or sitting and can be adapted to suit the student’s needs. With regular practice, they improve balance and circulation, flexibility, and coordination. By balancing and increasing the body’s vital energy, called chi, they promote inner peace and serenity and create a sense of well-being. This course repeats material from T’ai Chi Chih, but incorporates new Qigong breathing techniques, self-massage, and meditation.

Tuesday, 1:30–3 p.m., The Woodlands, Camellia
Judith Ziemer has taught aerobic fitness since 1982 and T’ai Chi to seniors since 2000 in San Diego, California, Biloxi, Mississippi, and six terms for OLLI.

HIS615 Victory in the Pacific
We will consider events leading up to World War I, United States and Japanese planning, comparative strengths and weaknesses of the two sides and some of the most important battles.

Tuesday, 1:30–3 p.m., North Village, Building J, 100
Hu Lacquement is a retired Army officer and a military history enthusiast, an avid interest he has maintained since he received the West Point history text for his 11th birthday.

Judith Ziemer has taught aerobic fitness since 1982 and T’ai Chi to seniors since 2000 in San Diego, California, Biloxi, Mississippi, and six terms for OLLI.
Course Descriptions

PAH819 Bridge for the Absolute Beginner
This course is for those of you who have never played bridge before or haven’t played “since college” and would like to find out what it’s all about. No previous bridge or card playing experience is required. We will start with the basics—a description of the game and how it’s played. Bidding and strategy will come later. Participants will determine the pace of the class. Please bring your book (Bidding in the 21st Century) to the first class.

Tuesday, 1:30–3:30 p.m., OLLI Office, 110
Stan Hack has been playing bridge for more years than he dares to admit. He has previously taught Computers for the Terrified and Beginning Bridge for OLLI. Frank Griffin will assist with this course.

HFE515 Aquacize
Aquacize is a combination of aerobics, strength training, toning, and flexibility routines, that uses the resistance of the water for physical improvement and the buoyancy of the water to alleviate strain on muscles, bones, and joints. The ability to swim is not a requirement, and we do not put our faces in the water. The ability to smile and enjoy getting fit with others is not a requirement, but is usually a natural result. Water temperature is around 80 degrees. You must complete a PAC health form that can be obtained from the OLLI website under Current Members/Forms and turn in to your instructors at the first class.

Tuesday and Thursday, 2–3 p.m., Herman W. Lay Physical Activities Center, Pool
Gladys Spiak, Carole Eisen, and Stefania Schollaert are long time OLLI members and have been a part of the Aquacize class for years.

HFE555 ALIVE—Active Learning, InVigorating Exercise
Let the fitness experts help you learn to use the Furman Fitness Center equipment correctly and develop an effective workout routine. The class will show you how to set up a comprehensive workout to increase your strength, endurance, and flexibility. The class emphasizes functional fitness for all participants. Prefer to not have repeat students as this class is popular and space is very limited. You must complete and turn in to the OLLI Office a PAC health form that can be obtained from the OLLI website under Current Members/Forms a week prior to your first class.

Tuesday and Thursday, 1:30–2:30 p.m., Herman W. Lay Physical Activities Center, 116
Mickey McCauley is a certified personal trainer by the American Council on Exercise and a fitness specialist with the Furman Fitness Center.

CPT315 Digital Photography—The Next Steps
Digital pictures piling up on your computer? Or on CDs? Do more with them. Digital photography’s strong suits—organization, post exposure control, and flexibility in the final product—are easy to master. Class members will use OLLI computers and Photoshop Elements 6.0 (a mid-level program) for hands on learning. We will organize picture files, improve lighting and color in our pictures, and learn to use some touchup tools. We will discuss printing, and create a slide show including background music. If you drag, drop, and navigate to files, you have the computer skills you need.

Tuesday, 3:15–4:45 p.m., OLLI Office, 116
Mike Wolfhard has been taking photos for years, digital photos for six. He manages and edits photos on his computer, likes to share what he has learned, and to learn from the class.
CPT310 Nature and Landscape Photography
We will hike about 2–4 miles to and from one or two picturesque sites for extended shoots. Bring water, lunch, hiking boots and gear, digital camera and manual, tripod, and spare batteries. Students must be interested in photography, be conversant with their equipment, and capable of moderate hiking on some uneven trails with some elevation. Emphasis will be on capturing your vision, and we will focus on the waterfalls and wild flowers available in our area woodlands. Please clear physical activity with your physician before registering. We will meet in the parking lot to the right rear of the chapel at 9 a.m. to carpool and share the cost of gas.
Wednesday, 9 a.m.–4 p.m., Daniel Chapel, Parking Lot
Bob Howell and Alan Weinberg both enjoy the outdoors and nature photography. They have taken several landscape photography trips and seminars. They both love to hike and be in the nature and share this combination.

CPT346 Intermediate Excel
For those familiar with the basics of using a spreadsheet, this course focuses on more advanced uses of formatting, formulas, data manipulation and charts, as well as covering additional topics such as pivot tables, templates, and macros. A working knowledge of computers and Windows is required. Class participants will need a USB flash memory card in order to save their work files.
Wednesday, 9–10:30 a.m., OLLI Office, 116
Rich Mead is a retired information technology manager and has been involved in training and supporting people in the use of a variety of computer applications for over 15 years.

HIS601 Anne Frank: Holocaust Through Film
The perception of the Holocaust can be seen in the differing depictions of Anne Frank, from 1959 to the present. We will examine how this perception has changed, and how particular political thought effected the movies produced. Readings of Anne Frank are included.
Wednesday, 9–10:30 a.m., OLLI Office, 109
Lucy Beam Hoffman is a history instructor focusing on the Holocaust, World War II, and the interwar period. She has been a business owner for 25 years. Her passion is teaching history and film studies.

BEF250 The Golden Years
This course is designed to educate retirees and soon to be retirees on the major concerns we face in retirement. We will discuss the effects of the new health care legislation on your Medicare; how to plan for your long-term care expenses without throwing your money away; how to earn higher returns than the market over the last 12 years; and retiring in a tax-free environment. This class helps you understand the facts, not just what some insurance agent or financial advisor wants you to hear.
Wednesday, 9–10:30 a.m., Hipp Hall, 7
Clint Cascaden is a financial advisor and CEO of The Retirement Resource Group. He has over eight years experience working with seniors in the financial industry.

LNT780 Beginning Spanish VI
This course is a continuation of the Winter Beginning Spanish V, but new members are welcome to join. Basic grammar and vocabulary will form an integral part of the course, but the overall goal is effective communication. Required text: Barron's Spanish the Easy Way, 4th Edition (ISBN: 0-7641-1974-5).
Wednesday, 9–10:30 a.m., OLLI Office, 110
Erik Franklin '11 is a music major at Furman. He has studied Spanish for eight years, including in Cuernavaca, Mexico.

CEO416 Downsizing is a Good Thing—Keep Moving in the Right Direction!
If you are considering a move in the near future, now is the time to transition from your family home to a residence that suits your current needs and desires. This class offers invaluable information on topics like 1) Downsizing a large household, 2) Overcoming procrastination and anxiety, 3) Assessing whether to fix up your current home to sell or sell it “as is”, 4) Locating professionals for every step of the moving process, 5) Working through family issues, 6) Finding the right type of housing for your future needs, and 7) Focusing on all the positives of a new lifestyle! Guest lecturers will include experts in real estate, staging homes, interior design, and moving.
Wednesday, 9–10:30 a.m., The Woodlands, Camellia
Fran Scoville is a retired realtor, home economist, and teacher with a BS and MS in home economics from Winthrop University. As a realtor for almost 20 years, she was a certified residential specialist, a senior real estate specialist and an accredited staging professional. Fran and her husband have just downsized and moved to Greenville from Wisconsin in the past two years.
SNM1017 Practically Green
Study, share, and practice sensible green living and learning techniques as if you were enrolled as an undergraduate student in Furman’s new sustainability science major. Topics include sustainable food, energy conservation, solar electricity and hot water, green building, composting, recycling, hybrid and electric vehicle options, and good land management. Live more healthfully, reduce waste, and save money.
Wednesday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., Shi Center for Sustainability
Frank M. Powell is professor and sustainability liaison in the Shi Center for Sustainability. For many years he has incorporated sustainability into his teaching and research in nutrition, environmental studies, outdoor education, and renewable energy.

SNM1021 Heating, Ventilating and Air Conditioning
Learn about HVAC basics: components, load calculation, ductwork, systems and equipment selection for domestic, commercial, and industrial facilities. Learn how to calculate the unit size you need for your house and how to select energy-efficient, quiet, and cost effective units for this geographic area. Manuel can also relate his experience designing systems in various types of buildings.
Wednesday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., OLLI Office, 110
Manual A. del Valle has 45 years experience (26 with Fluor) designing HVAC systems for domestic and industrial buildings, university campuses, high rise buildings, pharmaceutical facilities, and shopping malls. He has published HVAC articles in the United States and Europe and has spoken at conferences in the United States, Europe, Canada, and South America.

ACM106 The Ancient Art of Storytelling
Who were the first storytellers? What was the purpose of their stories? What is the value of storytelling and the importance of family stories? How do you develop a story and how do you deliver the story in an effective and entertaining way?
Wednesday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., The Woodlands, Camellia
Monty Tucker has been performing and teaching The Ancient Art of Storytelling for over 20 years. Most of the stories are created by Monty and vary from humor, fantasy, inspirational, ghost, and personal.

ACM114 Write On!
Class members will learn about a variety of poem forms and be encouraged to try writing their thoughts and feelings in some of the new forms. Participants need not be poets but must love to tangle with words. Please bring your own pens and paper.
Wednesday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., OLLI Office, 114
Sally Adkins is a retired English teacher and a lifelong word-lover. She was a former president of Kentucky State Poetry Society, a chair for state poetry contests and a contest judge.

CEO425 All About You: Your Personality Potential
Forget Meyers-Briggs and anything else you’ve heard about “personality.” Based on a model touted by internationally known author and speaker, Florence Littauer, this course is introspective in a way that will trump all other self-help genres by helping you understand your strengths and weaknesses. If you are still trying to achieve your maximum potential and enjoy life like never before, find yourself—in this class!
Required book: Wired that Way by Florence Littauer.
Wednesday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., North Village, Building J, 200-H
A former corporate trainer, Barbara Haile now enjoys making a living without a job. Learn and laugh with this author, popular speaker, and certified personality trainer.

HIS655 Russia by Train: History of the Trans-Siberian Railroad
Take a ride on the longest railroad in the world: the Trans-Siberian from Moscow to Beijing, or Vladivostok, or Pyongyang. Started in the 1880s, it traverses nine time zones (down from eleven by Russian decree) and the passenger service consumes the better part of a week. We’ll discuss the history of its reason for construction, the construction itself, and some of the literature that has ensued.
Wednesday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., OLLI Office, 109
An OLLI member for the last five years and a train buff for many years before that, Dan Kappel was always interested in his grandmother’s connection with the Trans-Siberian Railroad.

PAH809 Knit a Simple Sweater
You must know how to cast on, knit, purl, and cast off stitches for this class. If you know these simple skills you will leave the class wearing the sweater you knitted. Ready, set, knit! This course is not for the beginning knitter, this is an intermediate knitting class.
Wednesday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., North Village, Building J, 200-I
Gail Kirby has been knitting since the age of seven and loves to create beautiful things.

PAH838 Quilting by Hand
Learn the basics of quilting by hand. You can be as creative as you wish by piecing and assembling cotton fabrics of different colors (solids and prints) cut into various shapes to make a pattern. A list of supplies will be included with your confirmation.
Wednesday, 1–3 p.m., OLLI Office, 114
Simonne Lindemann has been quilting by hand for pleasure for over 35 years and teaching for ten.
ACM110 Pen and Ink
This class is for beginner and continuing students. Beginners will receive group and individual instruction as well as all the materials to complete a basic project. Continuing students will work on projects of their own choosing with input and guidance from the instructor as desired. No experience necessary.
Wednesday, 1:30–3:30 p.m., North Village, Building J, 300
Gail Jones and Ginger Martin will facilitate this course. They and several others have taken Pen and Ink from Cantey DuBose and Rory Case.

HIS670 Beasts of the 20th Century and Their Affect on Civilization
This course will enable the student to consider various 20th century dictators, what caused them to emerge, their goals and ambitions, those who supported them and those who opposed them: Hitler, Zedong, Stalin, Tojo, Brezhnev, Pot, Sung, Mariam, Enver and others. What set the stage for their blood bath against humanity? Where and who is next.
Wednesday, 1:30–3 p.m., Furman Hall, McEachern, 214
Ralph Bates is a retired Marine and a retired deputy sheriff. He has taught military history, travel, criminology, sociology, and college-level courses for over 50 years. Bates traveled the world as a Marine and after retiring became an instructor at the Travel Agent School of Fort Myers.

ACM127 Three Great American Photographers
“Three Great American Photographers” spotlights the lives and photographs of Matthew Brady, Eudora Welty, and Ansel Adams. The additional emphasis on literary pieces written by the photographers themselves and by writers of the time adds a richness and depth to the course making it one you will not want to miss. Note: This class is not a study of cameras or a history of photography; instead, it is a personal and literary adventure aimed at posing the photographers and their works under new and revealing lights.
Wednesday, 1:30 —3 p.m., North Village, Building J, 100
A former public school teacher, Linda Kelly holds a masters degree in fine arts and has been exploring new subjects with OLLI members since 2005.

LNT707 American Sign Language
With practice, you may learn over 400 signs and finger spelling along with history and culture of the deaf community. There is a great need for sign language interpreters in hospitals, schools, law enforcement, and churches. Recommended Book: Signing Illustrated
Wednesday, 1:30–3 p.m., OLLI Office, 110
Robin Dykhuizen, a member of the deaf community, will teach this class.

PAH801 Woodcarving 201
Students should have taken Woodcarving 101 or have some woodcarving experience, be able to maintain sharp tools, and have proper safety equipment. New students will choose a project that they would like to work on. Students with unfinished projects will be completed. The instructor will work with students to improve and expand carving techniques and will supply wood and project blanks. Painting and finishing of carvings will be covered. Materials Fee: $25 (due to instructor at first class). Instructor will supply wood and project blanks.
Wednesday, 1:30—4:30 p.m., North Village, Building J, 100
Kent Ellison has been carving for seven years and has won numerous awards. He has been teaching for five years.

ACM104 Bach and His Boys—from Baroque to Classical
Johann Sebastian Bach (1685–1750), arguably the greatest composer of all time, was certainly the most outstanding culminator of the late Baroque style in music. Four of Bach’s sons were among the most significant heralds of the new Classical style that followed. This course will compare the late Baroque music of Bach the father with the early Classical style of his sons Wilhelm Friedemann, Carl Philipp Emanuel, Johann Christoph Friedrich, and Johann Christian.
Thursday, 9–10:30 a.m., The Woodlands, Camellia
Duane White has taught music at Bob Jones University, the University of Wisconsin, Georgia College, and Clearwater Christian College. He currently teaches at Greenville Technical College.

ACM143 Understanding Music of the 20th Century
Though much of the concert music of the 20th century strikes audiences as harshly experimental and inaccessible, this music has its roots in the 18th and 19th centuries. The class will explore the variety of 20th century music and trace its origins back to earlier sources through lecture and listening examples.
Thursday, 9–10:30 a.m., OLLI Office, 110
Gary Malvern is a member of the Furman Music Department.

CPT301 Spring Fling
This class will feature alternating downtown Greenville camera strolls with in-class discussion of the photographs you take. Photographs will be evaluated by the class and instructor with possible new interpretations made in Photoshop. The students will have the opportunity to critique the instructor’s photographs. Spring is a great time to photograph and visit downtown Greenville with the eyes of a newcomer. This has proven to be great fun in past classes.
Thursday, 9–10:30 a.m., Johns Hall, 203
Bruce Schlein, retired pathologist, has been taking and exhibiting photographs since 1959. He has taught at OLLI and the Greenville County Museum Art School.
SNM1033 Physics 102 for Non-Scientists
This course is designed for those with an interest in how the physical world works and is a continuation of Physics 101. We will look further into the concepts of quantum theory and the concepts of string theory, M theory, higher dimensions, and the possibilities of parallel worlds and the multiverse. A background in science and math is not required, but an open and inquiring mind is. Students will determine the pace of the course with an emphasis on understanding the basic concepts before advancing to more complex or additional topics.
Thursday, 9–10:30 a.m., OLLI Office, 109
Joe McCarty is a retired professional engineer with an interest in both classical physics and the strange world of quantum theory and higher dimensions.

HFE502 Martin's Intermediate Hiking
Spring hiking with warmer weather, longer days and spring's bounty of wildflowers. Hike 4.5–7 miles with elevation gain and/or length. Hiking will be moderately strenuous, so please clear this physical activity with your physician before registering and sign the consent and release agreement. Pack a lunch and water, and wear sturdy footwear. Carpool and share cost of gas. Meet in the right rear parking lot at Daniel Chapel in time to leave by 9 a.m.
Thursday, 9 a.m.–4 p.m., Daniel Chapel, parking lot
Anne Martin and Jerry Gibbins will lead this hiking group. They have both enjoyed hiking for many years.

HFE512 Wildflowers and Waterfalls
This is a hiking experience for those hikers who wish to view and identify the wildflowers along the trails. Where possible, we will stop at a waterfall for lunch. The hiking will be moderate. Please clear physical activity with your physician before registering. Appropriate hiking gear and especially boots are recommended. Bring your cameras and wildflower books. People experienced in wildflower identification are encouraged to join us. Meet behind the chapel and be prepared for an all day adventure. We will carpool. Please sign the consent and release agreement on the registration form.
Thursday, 9 a.m.–4 p.m., Daniel Chapel, parking lot
Dick and Joy Eaton have been hiking since the mid 1960s and will lead this course.

HIS5755 The History of Christianity
Two thousand years of Christian history in eight weeks? It can be done. We will explore the major events in the development of the Christian faith, with the goal of gaining an understanding of current events in the Church, and what the future holds. All are welcome—no denomination will be favored over another. We will seek to learn from each other in an environment of trust and respect.
Thursday, 9–10:30 a.m., North Village, Building J, 200-I
Roxanne Ruggles is assistant rector at St. James Episcopal Church and has a master of divinity degree from the Seminary of the Southwest.

LNT723 Intermediate Spanish III
A continuation of Intermediate Spanish with an emphasis on speaking. We will read some literature and use current events as a stepping stone to conversation. Grammar will be incorporated on a regular basis.
Thursday, 9–10:30 a.m., Hipp Hall, 7
Faith Davis is a former high school Spanish and English teacher with over 22 years of experience. She has taught at OLLI for over four years.

HIS631 The Dark Corner—an Elusive to Exclusive Odyssey
This course will give you deep insights into this famous, yet infamous, mountainous region in northern Greenville County, South Carolina, that has been shrouded in moonshine, mayhem and mystery for over 175 years. You will discover a delineation of the region by physical boundaries, by living philosophies, by moonshining and superstition, by spirituality and by scenic beauty from a native son whose maternal and paternal ancestors came to the area in 1784 and 1832.
Thursday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., Daniel Chapel, Bryan Garden Room
Known as the Squire of Dark Corner, Dean Campbell is an author, columnist, lecturer, photographer, story teller, and tour guide for this mountainous region.

SNM1010 Astronomy: From the Beginning
Part III—Join Dave and Gil on an incredible journey through our universe. Recent discoveries have led to many major advancements in astronomy. We will explore the early universe, star formation, black holes, comets, and asteroids. Other topics include our solar system, exoplanets, quasars, pulsars, special relativity, and other interesting topics. A background in astronomy is not necessary as this is a course for beginners. Each session will have time for group discussion. Come join us for a new adventure.
Thursday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., OLLI Office, 109
Gil Knight is a retired educator from Greenville County Schools and retired from the U.S. Air Force. He studied Astronomy at the Professional Institute at M.I.T. Dave Adams is a retired automation systems engineer. Gil and Dave both volunteer at the Pisgah Astronomical Institute and teach a monthly class for the Roper Mountain Astronomers Club.

ACM126 Growing Up in the South
As we explore stories and memoirs by writers of the modern South, we can reflect upon universal experiences of coming of age. Regardless of where we grew up, we all have our own stories to share and to compare to those we read. Although we will have time to discuss only a small portion of the stories in our anthology, many class members will want to read them all. The 24 writers range from the famous to those less well known. Required book: Growing Up in the South edited by Suzanne Jones (ISBN#: 0-451-52873-5). Class will not meet on April 21.
Thursday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., Daniel Chapel, Conference Room
Sue Grady taught college English for 34 years at Greenville Tech prior to teaching at OLLI.

PAH813 Crochet 101
Great new class for crocheting. You will learn basic stitches and create a sampler afghan amid fun and laughter with a real needlework professional.
Thursday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., North Village, Building J, 200-H
Alice Ferguson has been crocheting for 25 years. She has had a love and involvement with needle arts since childhood.

Thursday, 1:30–3 p.m., OLLI Office, 110
Fred Leffert is a Greenville physician with a lifelong interest in Jewish Studies.

ACM108 Famous After 50
Has anyone ever told you that you should write a book? Many talented writers pass up the chance, thinking it’s too late to explore a new field. This course will walk you through the publishing world, and teach you how to turn a wealth of stories, knowledge and life experience into a finished product that teaches, entertains and sells!
Learn to organize your thoughts, write copy that flows and target the agents and publishers who can turn your dreams into bylines and checks.
Bring plenty of paper, and it would be helpful to bring writing samples to the first session. You can be published and possibly famous after 50! $45 materials fee due to instructor at first class.
Thursday, 1:30–3 p.m., OLLI Office, 114
Amanda Capps, Furman graduate, is an award-winning journalist and author who assists aspiring writers with both their craft and the business side of the publishing industry.

PAH841 Beginning Chess—Learn to Play
This course will introduce the complex and wonderful game of chess to those who have never played or have only minimal experience. Board setup, piece movement, general strategy, and basic tactics will be addressed. Later classes will focus on several classic, representative openings for white and defenses for black. This is not a comprehensive course and is not intended for intermediate or experienced players.
Thursday, 3:15–4:45 p.m., OLLI Office, 109
Kurt Schumacher, a graduate of Harvard College and Harvard Law School, is a local attorney for whom playing chess with friends is a preferred diversion.

SNM1015 Useful & Interesting Topics in Science and Math
This class will address the following topics: Everyday math, our memory after 50—is it all downhill?; design and construction of the Sydney Opera House; NASA national R&D policy; DNA testing and personalized medicine; and landslides in the Carolinas. The speakers will include Tom Oswald, Gil Einstein, Kent Snyder, Jack Hansen, Jason Rawlings, and Rick Wooten. To see more information on topics, go to our registration website.
Thursday, 1:30–3 p.m., Furman Hall, McCracken 214
Coordinated by Elaine Brummett.
SNM1016 Earth and Environmental Sciences
Furman’s Earth and Environmental Sciences Program helps students understand how our planet functions, the limits of Earth’s resources, how humans affect global processes, and how we can build a sustainable civilization for future generations. Faculty will explore topics both relevant to society and of general interest such as the geology of the Appalachian Mountains, the potential of phytoplankton as biofuels, the impact of climate change on India, water scarcity around the world, and the limits of agriculture.
Friday, 1:30–3 p.m., Rinker Hall, 152
Furman Earth and Environmental Sciences faculty will present weekly lectures within their areas of expertise and research interests. Coordinated by Brannon Andersen.

PAH822 Beginning Bridge III
This course is taught from Audrey Grant’s Bridge Basics 3: Popular Conventions. We will cover Stayman and Jacoby Transfer bids, strong opening bids, and slam bidding—the Blackwood and Berber conventions. The style of instruction will be identical to that used in Bridge I and II. An idea will be introduced and discussed followed by sheets with practice problems that you will work through with your partner using the new ideas. The remainder of the class will be spent using the new ideas playing bridge. $5 due to instructor at first class.
Friday, 1:30–3:30 p.m.,
The Woodlands, Camellia
Frank Griffin is a retired teacher who has enjoyed playing bridge for several years. His forte is making the information learner friendly and figuring out what’s not making sense to a beginner. Barbara Darwin will assist with this course.

CPT375 How to Play with Lightroom 3
This course is designed for those using Adobe Lightroom, a program designed specifically for photographers. Monitor and printer calibration, workflow concepts and image correction by cropping, color balancing, brightness, and contrast corrections will be taught. Cataloging of photographs will also be demonstrated. This is an intermediate course for photographers using Lightroom. Please bring your laptop with a recent version of Lightroom, preferably Lightroom 3.xx (latest is 3.33). This will allow you to work along during the class and practice at home.
Friday, 10:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m., Johns Hall, 203
Bruce Schlein, retired pathologist, has been taking and exhibiting photographs since 1959. He has taught at OLLI and the Greenville County Museum Art School.

BTE1175 The Ugly Dress: Living Well in Spite of Chronic Illness
Karen Kemper is a professor at Clemson University and has worked in health promotion for 25 years. Linda McNamara is an RN with over 30 years experience in health and wellness. “The Ugly Dress” is their metaphor for chronic illness; if you have to wear an ugly dress, learn to accessorize. They will discuss experiences living with serious autoimmune illnesses and use personal stories, anecdotes, and poetry to present life management strategies as accessories that transform our “ugly dresses.”
March 25, 12:30–2 p.m., OLLI Office 109, Limit 30
Coordinated by Elaine Brummett.

BTE1187 Spring into Action in the Garden
Bruce Adams, Furman’s organic and compost manager, will tell us how to start a garden. First, nothing happens until soil happens. Second, success depends on nurturing. Third, friend or foe (pest or not?). Fourth, it is all about the harvest.
April 1, 10 a.m.–noon, Limit 18
Coordinated by Elaine Brummett.

BTE1160 Clara Barton: Battlefield Angel, Embattled Spirit
A biographer of both Clara Barton and Robert E. Lee has recently said that Barton is “probably the more important American.” Come learn about Barton’s remarkable life and times and her contributions to American history and the American Red Cross. Presented by Albert Blackwell, Furman professor emeritus of religion and American Red Cross international humanitarian law instructor.
April 1, 1–3 p.m., OLLI Office 109, Limit 28

BTE1122 Splendors of the Baroque at Bob Jones University Museum & Gallery
The French word baroque, was extended to apply to anything that did not conform to accepted rules of proportion but catered to the whim of the artist. The roots of this art are found in the works of Michelangelo. The baroque period embraced many subjects—mythology, history, religion, still life, landscape, and portraits—and was marked by contrast between tumultuous battle scenes and quiet landscapes. It portrayed kings, princes, highwaymen, priests, and monks.
April 22, 11:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m., Limit 18
Coordinated by Helen Smith.

BTE1185 Tour White Oaks Mansion
White Oaks, the home of Furman’s president, was built in 1957 by Charles and Homozel Daniel. The Daniels furnished the stately home, which was modeled after the governor’s palace in Williamsburg, Virginia, with an amazing collection of 18th- and 19th-century European antiques. Upon their deaths, the house and its contents were bequeathed to Furman. Join university collections manager, Elizabeth Hamlett, on this rare opportunity to tour the home and see this stunning collection.
April 29, 10–11:30 a.m., Limit 18
Coordinated by Elaine Brummett.

BTE1152 Cityscape Winery
Learn how to make your own wine from fruit or juice and taste some of their locally made wines. Barbara will lead this trip out Hwy 25 between Pelzer and Fountain Inn. A map will be provided and carpooling can be arranged. We’ve been challenged!

An anonymous donor challenged OLLI @ Furman members to raise $500,000 before June 30, 2011. If we do, the donor will match our funds with $1.8 million. And to make it even more exciting—we have already raised over $200,000 toward our $500,000!

Please make your pledge to our new facilities today with your registration, so that we can beat the challenge and start building!

Be One of Us!

Please join the OLLI leadership and staff to complete the lifelong learning building campaign. Your contribution will be matched 6:1 by the naming donor ONLY if we raise $300,000 by June 30, 2011.

I wish to support the OLLI Lifelong Learning Building Campaign and the $1.8 Million Challenge with:

- A one-time gift of $____________________________
- A new pledge of $____________________________
- An extension of my current pledge with payments totaling $____________________________

If you wish your gift or pledge to be anonymous, please check here ______

Thank you for helping to ensure that learning never retires at Furman!

Make checks payable to FURMAN UNIVERSITY and return to the OLLI Office. For more information about this campaign or making a gift, please contact Lucy Woodhouse at 294.2997 or Betsy Moseley at 294.3491. (betsy.moseley@furman.edu).
frequently asked questions

How do I register? There are four ways to register for classes. Register online by going to our website www.furman.edu/olli or visit www.campusce.net/olliatfurman and follow the links. Register in person at the OLLI Office on Furman’s campus, fax your registration form to our office at 294.2920, or mail your completed form to OLLI @ Furman, 3300 Poinsett Highway, Greenville, SC 29613-1511.

Why did my neighbors get their brochure in the mail before I did? We mail all brochures out through the United States Postal Service Bulk Mail Unit on the same day. If you hear that the brochures are out, you can access it online at our website: www.furman.edu/olli; stop by the OLLI Office on campus, or any popular community business (YMCA’s, libraries, coffee shops) to get yours sooner.

Why didn’t I get into all the classes I wanted? Registrations are processed on a first come-first served basis. Classes are limited in size based on the instructor’s preference and classroom space availability.

What is the wait list policy? If you sign up for a class that is full, you will be automatically put on a waiting list. We are limited by classroom sizes, time available to us, instructor comfort levels, and safety. If a class has a long waiting list, the Curriculum Committee works to secure the course for future terms. Please be patient if you are put on a waiting list; many times, we are able to open/move a class to handle the demand.

What if I can’t attend a course for which I signed up? PLEASE let the office know as soon as possible. We have many students anxious to attend our classes and if we have an open spot we would like to see it filled. Please give others a chance to fill your place.

What if I miss a Friday bonus trip I signed up for? Any cancellations within 24 hours of an event or no shows by members for the special one-day events will be charged $25 by OLLI. The member will not be able to sign up for future events or trips until this fee is paid. In case of emergency or sickness within 24 hours of the event we ask that the member call to notify the office or trip leader as soon as possible. The notification procedure allows time for another member on the wait list to be contacted to take your place. Please be fair and considerate to your fellow Members.

Can my spouse or a friend join me on a Friday trip or Event Tour? Yes, but only after he/she joins OLLI for the annual $35 membership fee.

Do you have scholarships available? Yes. If you need financial assistance, please contact Lucy Woodhouse at 864.294.2997.
