Where Learning Never Retires

Summer is a great time to sign up for a course or two at the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) at Furman. Learn to kayak, build your photography skills, or brush up on your history knowledge. Cooking, writing, and literature classes are available too—there's something for everyone. Summer registration forms are available online and in the OLLI office. All summer courses are $30 unless otherwise indicated, and there is no membership fee required. Most of the one-day events are free!
