Course Descriptions

Tuesday

HFE590a Kayaking is Kool
Tuesday, 8:30–10:30 a.m., Lake Robinson
Come learn a new summer activity - kayaking! All four sessions will be on Lake Robinson (Greer area). Day one will be a hands-on session covering equipment, safety and stroke techniques with some on-water practice. You will learn new techniques in each of the following three sessions, including practice time on the water to put your new skills to use. Come join the fun. Fee: $20 (Lake boat permit due at first class).

This course will be co-taught by Rick Minton and Charlie Ennis. Rick is an avid kayaker with over a decade of experience including extensive time teaching, coaching, and training. Charlie is a converted former ARC Canoeing instructor and ACA credentialed Kayak Trip Leader.

HFE535 Aqua Fitness
Tuesday & Wednesday, 9–10 a.m., Herman W. Lay Physical Activities Center, Pool
A fun water class consisting of some aerobics, muscle work and balance. All are welcome to work at their own level. Class members do not need to know how to swim, but should be comfortable in chest deep water.

Kim Gargano has been teaching aqua fitness since 2003. Originally from NY, she currently teaches at the GHS Life Center and at Furman’s PAC. Stephanie Berry will assist with this course.

PHO1622 Contemplative Photography
Tuesday, 10 a.m.–noon, Herring Center, Piper (HC111)
Don’t touch that shutter button - yet! Digital photography has enabled everyone to take pictures at will, but has it made us better photographers? Contemplative photography is a new approach to seeing before actually taking a photograph. In this class we will explore texture, color, simplicity, light, and space through in-class exercises and weekly homework assignments.

Bruce McCandless is a retired science educator. He has taught black and white film photography and digital photography to both children and adults.

ACM162 Guitar IV
Tuesday, 10 a.m.–noon, Herring Center, Small Arts/Crafts (HC113)
This class is a continuation of Guitar III, but new folks are invited. We will learn more picking patterns, strumming patterns, tablature, the function of bar chords, bass licks, and more.

As a professional musician, Jann Howell has been involved in music making for over 55 years. Harriet Mason will assist with this course.

PAH837 Not Your Mama’s Picnic
Tuesday, 10 a.m.–noon, Herring Center, Huff with Lindemann Kitchen (HC105/106)
The class will prepare and eat a picnic every week that is not your usual picnic. The picnics will be easy, impressive and...

PAH849  Deal With It
Tuesday, 1–3 p.m., Herring Center, Small Arts/Crafts (HC113)

In this class we will learn three different thinking man’s (and woman’s) card games - hearts, spades, and canasta. We will talk about the basic rules and strategy, and make sure to take plenty of time to play them in class.

PAH844  DIY Workshop With Grandkids & Home Depot
Tuesday, 1–3 p.m., Meets offsite

Join in the fun of participating in a hands-on workshop as you and your favorite little person build a new project each week. All kids get to keep their crafts and receive a certificate of achievement, a Workshop Apron, and a commemorative pin. Home Depot experts will provide FREE kits and will be there to guide us along the way. Little people (grandkids, neighbors, proteges, etc.) should be age 5 to 10. Each OLLI member should plan to bring only one child since the adults will be taking an active role.

Grandma Sally Bornmueller will be the class coordinator. OLLI will partner with Home Depot for the first time with this class.

PHO1604 Reflections on Professional Photography
Tuesday, 1–3 p.m., Herring Center, Piper (HC111)

Each week a local professional with photography experience will share information about their journey in the world of photography, their careers in this field and the inspiration for their work. In the process students in this class will view a variety of engaging and inspiring photographs and/or photographic processes. This summer the photography lineup include, among others, Owen Riley, Diane Hopkins-Hugh and Bernard Smith.

This course will feature professional photographers. The class facilitator is Jeff Sarvis.

CPF366  Safe Computing: Practical Security & Privacy
Tuesday, 1–3 p.m., Herring Center, Campbell (HC004)

Personal computers connected to the Internet have created a huge opportunity for scam artists, unscrupulous marketers and dealers with information which they should not have. Anyone who takes advantage of modern connectivity will encounter these pests and needs to understand how to deal with them. This course looks at the various threats which exist in “cyberspace” and how the ordinary personal computer or smart-phone user can avoid them. Topics include modern scams; the problems of email and other messaging systems; viruses, worms and other pests; Passwords, encryption and personal security; WiFi issues and system security.

Michael Hughes has been a professional computer programmer since the mid-1960’s. He has been involved in just about every kind of project from office automation through computer-aided manufacturing to sophisticated vending machines.

Wednesday

PHO1640  Summer Photography Excursion
Wednesday, 8 a.m.–noon, Herring Center, Computer Lab (HC104)

The main goal of this class is to keep photographers photographing and at the same time have them learn or improve their skills. The class will be going to some unique locations: Table Rock, Twin Falls, and the Caesar’s Head area. The last class will be a critique of the photos taken.

Bob Spalding has been teaching photography since the mid 70’s through Clemson Extension. He also teaches two Road Scholar workshops each year. Bob’s personal area of focus is nature photography.

ACM181  Baby Steps Toward Public Speaking
Wednesday, 10 a.m.–noon, Herring Center, Campbell (HC004)

Many people, if not most, dread the challenge of speaking in public— whether it is a church devotional, a report in a neighborhood meeting, or simply participation in a stimulating discussion. In a comfortable and supportive environment, class members will begin by reading aloud while seated and progress though confidence-building techniques. Through practicing simple steps, you will have the opportunity to let your voice be heard. Minimal research and homework is required. Success is almost guaranteed.

Judith Chandler-Huse, lifelong educator and long-time OLLI instructor, is an active community volunteer and outsider artist.

HFE506  Build Your Core
Wednesday, 10 a.m.–noon, Herring Center, Crabtree (HC110)

This introductory/basic level fitness class is designed to help you feel more energetic, improve your balance and extend your flexibility. No prior fitness experience required but participants must be capable of lying on their back/ stomach and kneeling. This class will utilize the principals of basic core strengthening along with Pilates and yoga exercises. Each class will end with a Yin Yoga session targeted to improve flexibility and tranquility. Bring yourself with a positive attitude and a yoga mat to each class. We will also use OLLI provided resistance bands and tubing.

Ron Bryson, a retiree, keeps himself active with cycling, swimming and strength training. He has been a personal trainer and holds a Yoga teacher certification. He has learned how to manage his osteoarthritis pain with exercise and natural supplements. Ron has taught core fitness at OLLI since 2013.

ACM129 Oratorios and Liturgical Music
Wednesday, 1–3 p.m., Herring Center, Campbell (HC004)
Oratorios and Liturgical Music: Week 1 will be J.S. Bach and his great oratorio, St. John Passion. Week 2 will move to Handel’s oratorio, Saul. Haydn’s The Creation will be for Week 3, and finally Week 4 Mozart’s C minor masses (K139 and K427) plus Schubert’s Mass in e flat major. Power point presentation on the composers, works and performances will be provided in addition to DVD presentation of the works.

Ronald Bryson, a retired engineer, has been teaching courses on classical music and opera at OLLI since 2013. A devout music lover since high school, he endeavors to share his knowledge and level of enjoyment with class participants.

Thursday

HFE510 Tour the Swamp Rabbit Trail
Thursday, 8:30–10:30 a.m., Swamp Rabbit Trail
This course is for beginning and intermediate riders (no road racers please) of differing experiences. We will ride various distances, beginning at different entry points between Linky Stone and Travelers Rest. Both distance and speed will be determined by participants’ abilities and experience. And, of course, we’ll stop mid-ride for a snack! Requirements: Bike, helmet, appropriate shoes, mirror, bell and water.

Janet Aguilar rides her bike regularly on the SRT and has ridden on various trails between Greenville and Cleveland, Ohio.

BEF200 Confessions of a Wall Street Trader
Thursday, 10 a.m.–noon, Herring Center, Crabtree (HC110)
A light hearted look at a career spent in the always exciting and sometimes wacky world of high finance from someone who actually lived it over 5 tumultuous pre-millennial decades. From soaring heights to gut wrenching lows, there’s lots of laughs, glitter and celebs - crooks, con men and jerks galore plus an amazing number of very ordinary people who just got lucky. This course is not an investment primer and is certainly NOT for the faint of heart. PG rated - for adult language.

Bob Dwyer spent 33 years in the investment business on Wall Street in New York City. Over that time he was an executive in the brokerage industry, a Registered Investment Advisor and Managing Partner of a private investment fund. Bob has instructed at OLLI since 2008.

PAH880 Intro to Tunisian (Afghan) Crochet
Thursday, 10 a.m.–noon, Herring Center, Small Arts/Crafts (HC113)
Class instruction in Tunisian Crochet will include history, various Tunisian stitches, and references for follow-on research. Each class will have time for open discussion and questions. Upon request, Instructor will make available, for purchase, size K Tunisian hooks. Students will provide their own yarn – recommend acrylic in color(s) you like (remember light pastels show the stitches better). NOTE: Students should know the basic crochet chain and single crochet stitches. Material fee: $5 for hook if needed (due to instructor at first class).

Jim Mitchell has crocheted off and on since his Grandmother taught him over 50 years ago. He has made baby blankets for his five children and, so far, 10 grandchildren, as well as several hats, scarves, afghans, and animals along the way.
This class will examine Judaism in all its aspects: What is a Jew – How is Jewishness defined, What do Jews believe – Jewish theology, How do Jews live - Jewish law, holidays, observances and traditions, Where have Jews been - turning points in Jewish history, Where are they going – modern trends in Judaism. Emphasis will be on an interactive discussion-style class.

Fred Leffert is a Greenville physician with a life-long interest in Jewish Studies. He has taught several Hebrew classes since 2000.

ACM116  Pen and Ink and Then Some…
Thursday, 10 a.m.–noon, Herring Center, Graham (HC005)
This is a relaxed two-hour studio class. No experience is required and both beginning and continuing students are welcome. New students will complete at least two projects. With group and individual instruction, the class will cover strokes, techniques, hints, secrets and tricks. Anyone with a pencil, pen, or paintbrush is invited. The class will learn from each other and the music is good! Materials fee: $15 for beginners (due to instructor at first class).

Gail Jones will teach this course. She uses the “Cantey DuBose” method and has lots of “ink time”.

ACM196  Practice, Practice, Practice
Thursday, 10 a.m.–noon, Herring Center, Campbell (HC004)
Experienced writers hone their skills by reading, writing, and sharing their work with others in a supportive environment. We will continue to review elements of composition and style, while exploring new challenges of subject matter and form. Instructor and class feedback enhances improvement. Homework is required. Students should have writing experience in OLLI writing classes or other formal composition classes.

Judith Chandler-Huse, lifelong educator and long-time OLLI instructor, is an active community volunteer and outsider artist.

ACM135  Broadway Show Tunes
Thursday, 1–3 p.m., Herring Center, Crabtree (HC110)
This course will focus on those memorable songs which lie at the heart of the American musical in an informal class environment, with lots of musical examples. We will examine how show tunes have been conceived and written, explore their varied subjects, functions, forms and styles, and assess what makes for a great song within the context of a Broadway musical. Along the way, the class will get to hear and sing along with a grand array of wonderful show tunes, including all-time favorites and lesser known beauties.

Laura Becker has a PhD in History and a life-long love of all kinds of music, including a special affinity for Broadway musicals.

CPT322  Organizing Your PC Documents
Thursday, 1–3 p.m., Herring Center, Computer Lab (HC104)
This will be a two-week course exploring how to organize the data inside your computer. This will include individual documents (files, photos, etc.), folders, and sub-folders. We’ll work with File Explorer to create new folders to organize documents, rename files/folders, and move files from one folder to another. We’ll also discuss backing up and restoring files and in the process demystify "the cloud". You’ll also learn a few Windows 10 tips including how to access files/folders from the START menu. Class meets June 8 and 15 only. Course cost: $20.

Sally Bornmueller is a retired Human Resources professional with an emphasis in HR Information Systems. She has taught several OLLI classes. David Sutherland will be assisting with the class.

SNM1073  Small Wonders 101
Thursday, 1–2:30 p.m., Herring Center, Small Arts/Crafts (HC113)
This is a class for novices who see butterflies and dragonflies during the day and hear frogs/toads in the evening and want to name them and know more about their natural histories. Each of the first three weeks will be in the classroom (1st – frogs/toads, 2nd – butterflies, 3rd – dragonflies/damsel flies) and the last week will be spent walking the Furman campus, looking for the small wonders we have been learning about. The 4th class will require the ability to walk for ninety minutes.

Jean Fontaine has been involved in different aspects of education, including teaching science to fifth graders, working at a nature center, and participating in frog/toad and butterfly surveys. She loves to share her knowledge and is always learning more.

ACM115  Tea and Mystery
Thursday, 1–3 p.m., Herring Center, Huff with Lindemann Kitchen (HC105/106)
“Steep” yourself in all things TEA and enjoy a cozy mystery as you sip. Afternoon Tea foods will be prepared by instructors and sampled by the class. Recipes are included. Enjoy a “cozy” mystery and lively discussion with each tea presentation. Several different teas will be sampled in each class session. Join us for a delightful afternoon of Tea and Mystery. NOTE: This is a repeat of Winter17 course. Food cost: $7 per session ($28 due to instructor at first class).

Lynne Blitstein is a retired teacher and librarian. She is an enthusiastic gardener, cook, mystery reader and tea lover. Mary Lou Huntoon is a fabulous cook and gardener who loves a great mystery and a good cup of tea.

CEO481  Dining Around – Pub Food (All New)
Thursday, 5–7 p.m., Meets Offsite
This class will explore locally owned pubs in Greenville. Most pubs will give a tour of the pub and talk about their history, specialties, or other fascinating tidbits. Participants are required to bring two $15 checks made out to Furman to the OLLI office. If participant meets the RSVP requirement each week, the checks will be returned to them after the last class. Otherwise the check will be forfeited for each time the requirement was not met to the pub. Bon Appetit (or should we say Rack Em Up).

Mignon Davis has planned events for 50 to 5000 people and in the process contracted with many restaurant chefs, caterers, etc. She considers herself a “foodie.”
BTE1188  A Photographer's Paradise on Roan Mountain
June 9, 7 a.m.–7 p.m., Roan Mountain, TN
Visit 6000+ foot Roan Mountain with Seth Harrison. Hike the Appalachian Trail as it runs along the border of Tennessee and North Carolina over high mountain 'balds' which are rich in natural and cultural history. We will be walking from Carvers Gap along the Trail to rock outcroppings and spectacular views. Natural history, photography, and enjoying the summertime cool mountain breezes are on the itinerary. ### OLLI is traveling to the Czech Republic! September 4-13, 2017

Immerse yourself in Prague, the ancient capital of the Kingdom of Bohemia. Take time to enjoy some of the best beer in the world on the shores of the Vltava river listening to Smetana's ode to that very river. Breathe in a millennium of culture, architecture, history, and music. The trip includes exploring the countryside of Southern Bohemia with overnight stay in Cesky Krumlov, one of Europe’s most picturesque towns and an UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Call the OLLI office (294-2998) to see how best to sign up!
