August 12\textsuperscript{th}, 2015

Dear Furman Student,

As a student at a top university in the Carolinas, you are cordially invited to participate in a private career event at Colonial Life in Columbia, SC on \textbf{Friday, Sept. 25 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.} Colonial Life and our Leadership Development Programs will host student leaders from the top schools in the Carolinas to be a part of our prestigious \textit{Leading the Future Day}.

You will have the opportunity to interact with leaders from a Fortune 500 industry-leading insurance company, while learning about the Colonial Life business and career opportunities for bright young leaders. The day will consist of the following events:

- Welcome and Introduction
- Colonial Life Business Overview
- Campus Tour
- Career Opportunities Discussion
- Panel Q&A with Colonial Life Senior Leadership Team

In an uncertain economic time, there is a growing need for health and financial insurance products. The industry is expecting tremendous growth in the coming years and the companies poised to lead the way are those that make a commitment to the education and development of high-potential young professionals such as you. This event will certainly open many doors to knowledge and career opportunities while reinforcing Colonial Life’s commitment to insurance education and communication.

For over 75 years Colonial Life (part of Unum Group) has been a leader in the employee benefits arena, restoring peace of mind for employees whose insurance plans leave them feeling vulnerable. Our delivery of this financial protection has evolved throughout our company’s history, but our mission hasn’t changed. We are dedicated to protecting America’s workers and creating valuable and lasting partnerships within the communities where we live and work.

Because we are striving for an intimate event setting in which to learn more about your career interests and potential, we are accepting top qualified candidates. Qualified candidates include students with at least a 3.3 GPA, preferably a business, finance, math, economics or marketing degree, demonstrated leadership and an interest in a career in financial services. There is \textbf{no cost for participation} in \textit{Leading the Future Day}, but attendees are responsible for their own transportation. Breakfast and lunch will be provided. If you are interested in attending, please reply with your name and résumé to Brian Power at bpower@unum.com by Thursday, Sept. 10th, 2015 and we will contact you regarding your attendance. Please note that the invitation is limited to five (5) students from Furman University.

To learn more about our company you can visit our website at www.coloniallife.com or www.unum.com, or connect with the company at www.facebook.com/coloniallifebenefits, www.twitter.com/coloniallife and www.linkedin.com/company/colonial-life.

If you have any questions, please don’t hesitate to contact your Colonial Life recruiting representative directly. Thanks and we look forward to meeting you!

Sincerely,

Brian Power
