

John Paladin

3300 Poinsett Highway, Greenville, S.C. 29613
(864) 123-4567 | student@furman.com

Date available to begin work: June 2020

SUMMARY STATEMENT

Dynamic individual with years of Leadership, Operations, Communication and ROTC training. Possess a strong work ethic and self-motivation. Strong written and oral communication skills.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts in Politics and International Affairs, May 2020
Furman University, Greenville, S.C., GPA: 3.91/4.0

HONORS/ACHIEVEMENTS

Army ROTC Four-Year Scholarship, 2016-2020

Dean's List (8/8 Semesters)

The Tocqueville Society Fellow, 2019-2020

PROFESSIONAL WORK EXPERIENCE

FBI Honors Internship Program, Summer 2018 and 2019
Washington, D.C.
Salary: $10.00/hr
Job Type: 40 hours per week, Full-Time
Supervisor: Robin Furman, (123) 456-7890

Selected as one out of five interns into one of the most competitive and prestigious internship programs in the country. Observed daily operations with cybersecurity analysts, forensic scientists, law enforcement officers, and financial advisors. Learned in-depth knowledge regarding cybersecurity and law enforcement rules and regulations as it pertained to national security. Researched national and international terrorism and wrote weekly reports on findings; used research during committee meetings and debriefs with supervisors.

OTHER WORK EXPERIENCE

Senate Page Program, May 2017 – August 2017
Washington, D.C.
Salary: $8.00 per hour
Job Type: 40 hours per week, Full-Time
Supervisor: Lee Furman, (123) 456-7890

Developed a deeper knowledge of legislative processes, observed committee hearings, gave guided group tours of the Capitol, and researched various laws, policies and legislative issues. Worked in a fast-paced environment with five interns from across the country.

TRAINING

Cadet Leadership Course, Army ROTC, 2019

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE / COMMUNITY SERVICE

United Way, Palmetto Society, August 2016-Present
Greenville, S.C.

Focus on improving and investing in Greenville's growing future by hosting events and programs to help raise money that will be put towards various projects around the city; raised $8M in 2016-17.

Capital Area Food Bank, May 2018 – August 2018
Washington, D.C.

Collected donations, prepared meals and distributed meal packages to local residents.

Harvest Hope Food Bank, December 2017
Greenville, S.C.

Planned, organized and hosted a food drive on Furman University's campus and collected 500lbs of food and $3,000 in donations; food was distributed to local residents during the holiday season.