New Student Summer Orientation Schedule
TENTATIVE
Please note: Students will be provided with a session-specific schedule upon arrival for their orientation program.

Day One
8:00-9:15am    Check In (Geer Residence Hall, South Housing)
Parking for orientation will be on Blackwell Field, located just past the Trone Student Center parking lot, on the left.

9:30-10:00am   Welcome! (Watkins Room, Trone Student Center)
Students will be dismissed by group number. Your group number can be found on your name tag and the upper right corner of the folder you received at check-in.

10:00-10:45am  O-Group Meeting (Various Locations)
Get to know your first Furman family, your small group! Your Orientation Staff (O-Staff) leaders will facilitate introductions, provide an overview of the Summer Orientation schedule, and let you know what to expect throughout the next day and a half.

10:45-11:15am  Academic Success through The Furman Advantage (Burgiss Theater, Trone Student Center)
Dr. Brad Harmon, Assistant Dean for the First-Year and Second-Year Experience, will provide you with an overview of what to expect as a new Furman student and how we help you navigate your personal four-year pathway to graduation. Some of the questions that will be addressed are: What are the graduation and general education requirements all students must complete? What is the role of your academic advisor? What are your responsibilities to ensure you are successful and thrive at Furman?

11:30am-12:30pm  Thriving in Your First Year at Furman (Assigned Classrooms)
Learn from Furman faculty, staff, and your O-Staff leaders how to be a successful student at Furman. How will you connect with your mentors? What does it mean to thrive as a first-year student? What will professors expect of you? What can you expect as you transition from high school to college?

12:30-1:30pm   Lunch (Daniel Dining Hall)
Don't hesitate to ask your O-Staff leaders or a member of the Dining Hall staff to assist you in navigating the Dining Hall, especially if you have any specific dietary requests. And don't forget to grab one of those famous DH cookies!

1:30-2:30pm    Your First Semester Courses (Assigned Classrooms)
Learn what it means to develop an initial course schedule for your first semester in college. How do you select a first-year writing seminar? How do you develop a schedule that helps you be successful? Begin thinking about which courses you would like to take in the fall so you are prepared for your advising appointment.

2:45-3:30pm   Foreign Language Meeting (Burgiss Theater, Trone Student Center)
Hear from members of Furman’s foreign language faculty about language course options and requirements for Furman students.

3:45-5:15pm   Explore: Academic Pathways Fair (James B. Duke Library)
This is your chance to explore many of the academic opportunities and course options available to first year students. Whether you have an idea of what you may major in or are still deciding, take advantage of this time to speak with faculty and learn more about the diverse academic options available to students. Please refer to the insert in your folder for a list of participating departments and programs.
5:15-6:00pm  Life at Furman (Burgiss Theater, Trone Student Center)
This interactive presentation will take time to explore our community expectations and how the Class of 2023 can have a positive impact on the Furman campus.

6:00-7:00pm  Dinner (Daniel Dining Hall)

7:00-8:30pm  O-Group Meeting (Various Locations)
We know you’ve received a lot of information – use this time to reflect on what you’ve learned and ask any questions that may have come to mind throughout the day. Your O-Staff leaders will go over tomorrow’s schedule and help you to prepare for your one-on-one advising meeting.

8:00-10:00pm  PalaParty (Hill Atrium & Upper Patio, Trone Student Center)
Enjoy getting to know some of your fellow classmates – free food, games, and giveaways!

10:00pm  Return to Residence Halls
Just a friendly reminder that you are now a Furman student, which means all University policies and procedures do apply throughout your stay on campus. You are welcome to hang out in the residence hall lounges, but please do not leave the South Housing or Lakeside Housing areas.

Day Two

7:30-8:30am  Breakfast (Daniel Dining Hall)
Rise and shine! Enjoy breakfast with your O-Group while your O-Staff leaders provide some reminders for the day.

8:00-9:00am  Residence Hall Check Out (Geer Residence Hall, South Housing)
Please return your room key and check out before attending any morning sessions. Please note: There will not be any storage space for your belongings, so please plan accordingly. Any room keys lost or not returned will result in a $50 fine, lost swipe cards will be $10.

8:30am-3:00pm  Individual Advising Appointments
Please attend during your assigned time. Your O-Staff leader will facilitate signing up for appointments, as well as assist you finding your advisor’s office. When you are not in an advising appointment, you should attend one of the sessions listed below.

9:00-9:45am & 10:00-10:45am  Housing & Residence Life at Furman (Burgiss Theater, Trone Student Center)
Hear from members of the Housing & Residence Life team about the residential campus experience. Learn how roommates are assigned, the resources available to you within the residence halls, and what you should (or should not) be bringing with you in the fall.

10:00-11:30am  Academic Success Research Study
As part of The Furman Advantage, the University is studying the impact of high school curriculum on subsequent academic pathways. This program is limited to a select number of students who were notified via email prior to Summer Orientation. Please let your O-Staff leaders know if you are participating in this program, so they can arrange for your advising appointment to take place before 10:00am.
10:30am-12:30pm  Campus & Community Connections Fair (Hill Atrium & Lower Level Lobby, Trone Student Center)
Representatives from various offices and departments around campus, as well as some of our favorite local businesses, will be available to answer questions and inform you about opportunities and services available to Furman students. Please refer to the insert in your folder for a list of participants.
