

What are your rights? Collage

Jennifer Steadman

Riley Institute for Teachers of Government, Summer 2005

Northwood Middle School

Purpose: to demonstrate an understanding of rights guaranteed to all people under the Constitution and the Amendments

Objective: to make a collage on a half sheet of poster paper that will be shared with the class; project will count as a 100 point test-weighted grade and will serve as the cumulative activity for this unit

Procedures:

- Divide class up into pairs—students may choose their own partners
- Each pair will create a collage on a half sheet of poster paper that represents rights guaranteed to all people under the Constitution and the Amendments
- Each pair will stand up in front of the class and describe the items on the collage and what rights they exemplify
- Posters will be displayed throughout the room

I provide:

- Scissors
- Glue/tape
- Magazines
- Time in class to work

You provide:

- Magazines
- Poster paper
- Clean up at the end of class

Grading Rubric:

Category	Creative	Organized	Explained effectively	Achieves objective	Participation
Possible points	20	20	20	20	20
Your points earned

Your grade:

Comments: