Job Title: Student Research Assistant, Riley Institute

Start date: 8/28/2023

End date: 5/1/2023

Compensation: $10.00 per hour

Supervisor: Brooke Culclasure, Research Director, The Riley Institute at Furman

Job description: The student will assist with research projects on a variety of public education topics. Interns will participate in tasks such as writing literature reviews, editing research reports, entering data, coding qualitative data, and creating surveys. Publishing opportunities may be available.

Hours: 7-10 hours during weekday preferred.

Skills: Student should have strong writing and analytical skills. No prior research experience needed.

To apply: Search for “Seach Student Jobs” in Workday or send resume and cover letter to brooke.culclasure@furman.edu